Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present in determining whether a quorum is present, but are not counted in the calculation of the vote. If the proxy is signed and returned without specifying choices, the shares will be voted in favor of each item on the agenda in accordance with the recommendations of the Board. Members of the Board and executive officers of Fuel Tech may solicit shareholders' proxies by mail, telephone or facsimile. Fuel Tech will bear the cost of proxy solicitation, if any.

Mr. Espinosa, Mr. Khanachet, Mr. Jones, Mr. Morrow and Mr. Shaw meet the criteria for independence set forth in NASD Rule 4200 (a) (15) and also Rule 10A-3(b) (1) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Board has also determined that Mr. Espinosa and Mr. Khanachet are audit committee members who possess "financial sophistication" as described in NASD Rule 4350(d) (2) (A).

The Board also has a Compensation and Nominating Committee of which the members are Mr. Shaw (Chairman), Mr. Espinosa, Mr. Jones, Mr. Khanachet and Mr. Morrow, each of whom are independent directors of that committee as defined by NASD Rule 4200(a) (15).

Also during 2005 the Board had an ad hoc Strategic Planning Committee appointed by the Chairman to review Fuel Tech's long-term prospects and to develop a strategic plan. The members of that Committee were Mr. D. G. Bailey, Mr. Grinnell, Mr. Jones, and Mr. Morrow.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is responsible for review of audits, financial reporting and compliance, and accounting and internal controls policy. For audit services, the Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement and compensation of independent auditors, oversight of their activities and evaluation of their independence. The Audit Committee has instituted procedures for receiving reports of improper recordkeeping, accounting or disclosure. The Board has also constituted the Audit Committee as a Qualified Legal Compliance Committee in accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. A copy of the Audit Committee Charter is attached as Schedule I to this Proxy Statement and is also available for inspection on the Fuel Tech web site at www.fueltechnv.com.

Compensation and Nominating Committee

The Compensation and Nominating Committee reviews and approves executive compensation, stock options and similar awards, and adoption or revision of benefit, welfare and executive compensation plans and also determines the identity of director nominees for election to fill a vacancy on the Board of Managing Directors of Fuel Tech. Nominees are approved by the Board on recommendation of the Committee.

In evaluating nominees, the Committee particularly seeks candidates of high ethical character with significant business experience at the senior management or Board level who have the time and energy to attend to Board responsibilities. Candidates should also satisfy such other particular requirements that the Committee may consider important to Fuel Tech's business at the time. When a vacancy occurs on the Board, the Committee, in consultation with the Chairman, will consider nominees from all sources, including shareholders, nominees recommended by other parties, and candidates known to the Managing Directors or to Fuel Tech management. The Committee may, if appropriate, make use of a search firm and pay a fee for services in identifying candidates. The best candidate from all evaluated will be recommended to the Board to be considered for nomination.

Shareholders who wish to recommend candidates for consideration as nominees should before January 1 in each year furnish in writing detailed biographical information concerning the candidate to the Committee addressed in care of the Corporate Secretary, Fuel Tech, Inc., 695 East Main Street, Stamford, Connecticut 06901.

Corporate Governance

Meetings

During the year ended December 31, 2005 there were seven meetings of the Board of Directors of Fuel Tech, eight meetings of its Audit Committee and four meetings of the Compensation and Nominating Committee. Each director of Fuel Tech attended at least 75% of Board and committee meetings of which he was a member during the period of his directorship. The Directors did not attend the annual meeting of Shareholders in 2005 because in satisfaction of Netherlands Antilles law, that meeting is held annually in Curaçao, Netherlands Antilles, and is conducted by proxy.

Executive Sessions

In 2005 there were the following executive sessions: the Fuel Tech Board, three sessions; the Audit Committee, four sessions; and the Compensation and Nominating Committee, two sessions.

The policy of the Board on executive sessions is that the Board will hold not less than two executive sessions of the independent directors annually in connection with regularly scheduled meetings. The committees of the Board will hold executive sessions when appropriate. Members of management and non-independent Managing Directors will not attend executive sessions, except when invited to provide information. The executive sessions of the Board will be chaired by the independent Managing Directors in rotation by alphabetical order.

Code of Business Ethics and Conduct

On the recommendation of the Audit Committee, the Board has adopted a Code of Business Ethics and Conduct which is available for viewing on the Fuel Tech web site www.fueltechnv.com. Changes to or waivers of the requirements of the Code will be posted to the web site.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Audit Committee has reappointed the firm of Ernst & Young LLP, Certified Public Accountants ("Ernst & Young"), to be Fuel Tech's auditors for the year 2006 and submits that reappointment to the shareholders for ratification. Ernst & Young has served in this capacity since 1990 and is knowledgeable about Fuel Tech's operations and accounting practices and is well qualified to act in the capacity of independent accountants. In making the appointment, the Audit Committee reviewed Ernst & Young's performance in prior years along with its reputation for integrity and overall competence in accounting and auditing. Representatives of Ernst & Young will not be present in Curaçao at the Meeting.

Audit Fees

Fees for professional services provided by Ernst & Young in each of the last two fiscal years by category were:

	2005	2004
Audit Fees	$ 317,700	$ 391,050
Audit-Related Fees	-	2,300
Tax Fees	-	-
All Other Fees	1,500	1,500
	$ 319,200	$ 394,850

"Audited-related fees" in 2004, less than 1% of 2004 services, were for assurances related to the audit concerning accounting for revenues from a Fuel Tech utility customer. "All Other Fees" in 2005 and 2004, also less than 1% of services in those years and approved in advance by the Audit Committee, were subscription fees for an on-line accounting newsletter.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

Fuel Tech's policy and procedure is that each engagement for an audit or non-audit service is approved in advance by Audit Committee.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares voting is required for the approval of this proposal. The Board recommends a vote FOR this proposal.

Report of the Audit Committee

Management is primarily responsible for Fuel Tech's internal controls and financial reporting. Ernst & Young, the independent auditors, are responsible for performing independent audits of Fuel Tech's consolidated financial statements and its internal control over financial reporting in accordance with the auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. These audits serve as the basis for Ernst & Young's opinions included in annual reports to stockholders as to whether the financial statements fairly present Fuel Tech's financial position, results of operations, and cash flows in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, whether management's assessment of the effectiveness of Fuel Tech's internal control over financial reporting is fairly stated, and whether Fuel Tech's internal control over financial reporting was effective. The Committee is responsible for the review and oversight of these processes.

Management has represented that Fuel Tech's 2005 financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The Committee has reviewed and discussed with both management and Ernst & Young the 2005 financial statements, management's report on internal control over financial reporting and the independent auditors' report thereon. The Committee has also discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as amended.

The Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as amended, and has represented that Ernst & Young is independent from Fuel Tech. The Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young their independence and concluded that the provision of the services described above under the caption "Audit Fees" is compatible with maintaining their independence.

The Committee also reviewed its Charter and determined that no changes are required to the Charter.

Based on the representations, reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Managing Directors that Fuel Tech's 2005 audited consolidated financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(1) Mr. Argabright has elected to retire from Fuel Tech, Inc. on April 30, 2006. Mr. R. E. Bailey is not an employee of Fuel Tech or of Fuel Tech, Inc. Mr. Schwartz became an employee of Fuel Tech, Inc. on January 1, 2004.

(2) Bonus payments, earned in 2005 and paid in 2006, were made pursuant to Fuel Tech's Management Incentive Program ("MIP"). See the description of that program under the caption "Report on Executive Compensation" below.

(3) The amounts designated as "All Other Compensation" were, for Mr. R. E. Bailey, directors' fees which for 2005, 2004 and 2003, respectively, were deferred under the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan as 4,907, 5,126 and 5,839 Units; the amounts for Messrs. Albanese, Argabright, Arnone, Brady and Schwartz were company profit sharing and matching contributions to the Fuel Tech, Inc. 401(k) Plan.

Directors' Compensation

Directors employed by Fuel Tech or its subsidiaries receive no compensation for their service as directors.

Non-executive directors of Fuel Tech or of Fuel Tech, Inc. receive annual cash retainers and meeting fees. The annual retainers, payable in arrears, are $15,000 for Board service and $2,000 for service as a committee chairman. Meeting fees are $1,200 for a Board meeting or otherwise for a day of service as a director and requested by the Chairman and $600 for a committee meeting. Under the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan, non-executive directors are entitled to defer fees in either cash with interest or share equivalent "Units" until fixed dates, including the date of retirement from the Board, when the deferred amounts will be distributed in cash.

Under Fuel Tech's 1993 Incentive Plan, the "1993 Plan," each non-employee director of Fuel Tech or of Fuel Tech, Inc. is awarded as of the first business day following the annual meeting, a non-qualified stock option for 10,000 shares of Fuel Tech common for a term of 10 years vesting immediately. Such 10,000 share options were awarded to Messrs. R. E. Bailey, Espinosa, Jones, Khanachet, Morrow and Shaw effective June 3, 2005 at the exercise price of $5.995 per share, the fair market value of Fuel Tech common on that date.

Indemnification and Insurance

Under the Fuel Tech Articles of Association, indemnification is afforded Fuel Tech's directors and executive officers to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of the Netherlands Antilles. Such indemnification also includes payment of any costs which an indemnitee incurs because of claims against the indemnitee. Fuel Tech is, however, not obligated to provide indemnity and costs where it is adjudicated that the indemnitee did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that the indemnitee's actions were in the best interests of Fuel Tech, or, in the case of a settlement of a claim, such determination is made by the Board of Directors of Fuel Tech.

Fuel Tech carries insurance providing indemnification, under certain circumstances, to all of its subsidiaries' directors and officers for claims against them by reason of, among other things, any act or failure to act in their capacities as directors or officers. The current annual premium for this policy is $203,000.

No payments have been made for such indemnification to any past or present director or officer by Fuel Tech or under any insurance policy.

COMPENSATION AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE
REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Policies

Fuel Tech's executive compensation policies are to pay competitive salaries and annual incentive compensation, if earned, and to grant stock option awards in appropriate amounts. Competitive salaries are based on THE Board's knowledge of market conditions supplemented by salary surveys as well as the position of each employee within the business, and historical practice. Incentive compensation, intended to encourage performance, may be in the form of discretionary bonuses or participation by managers in the Fuel Tech, Inc. Management Incentive Program. Fuel Tech stock option awards are made to provide a long-term incentive to employees and to create a common interest between the employees and its shareholders generally.

Compensation of Executive Officers - 2005

The key components of Fuel Tech's executive compensation program during the last fiscal year were base salary and stock option awards under the 1993 Plan in the amounts shown above under the caption "Executive Compensation." Base salaries are fixed by the Board in its discretion based upon historical levels, performance, ranking within the officer group, amounts being paid by comparable companies, and Fuel Tech's financial position. Incentive compensation awards, when earned, are based upon Fuel Tech's achievement of financial targets under an annual profit plan and the individual officer's Targeted Participation Percentage. The financial performance achievement is based on a matrix calculation involving revenues and earnings before interest and taxes. Other adjustments are made as necessary to account for corporate, business unit and individual performance. The financial performance targets for 2005 were met and exceeded and $629,542 was paid to the participants. The stock options are designed to provide additional incentives to executive officers to maximize shareholder value. Through the use of vesting periods, the option program encourages executives to remain in the employ of Fuel Tech. In addition, because the exercise prices of such options are set at the fair market value of the stock on the date of grant of the option, executives can only benefit from such options if the trading price of Fuel Tech's shares increases, thus aligning their financial interests with those of the shareholders.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer - 2005

The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer during 2005, Ralph E. Bailey, is not an employee of Fuel Tech or of Fuel Tech, Inc. and received directors' fees and stock option awards for service in his capacity as a director only.

In 2005, Mr. Argabright, President and Chief Operating Officer of Fuel Tech, Inc., was paid a competitive base salary. A significant portion of Mr. Argabright's annual compensation in 2005 was based on incentive compensation with a Targeted Participation Percentage of 40% of base salary, under the 2005 MIP formula. Because of the Fuel Tech's performance, Mr. Argabright was allocated the MIP payout indicated in the table under the caption above. Mr. Argabright was also awarded a stock option effective December 6, 2005 for 50,000 shares at the exercise price of $8.46 per share.
